Friends of the Missouri Governor's Mansion is partnering with the Missouri Retired Teachers' Association

Friends of the Missouri Governor's Mansion is partnering with the Missouri Retired Teachers' Association to recruit candidates who have a love of history, beautiful buildings, and of course, educating others.

For almost fifty years, Friends of the Missouri Governor's Mansion and our volunteer docents have welcomed 50,000 to 70,000 visitors a year from around our state, nation, and the world. Working in partnership with Missouri's First Family and the State of Missouri, our mission is to preserve the Mansion's history through stewardship of the building's interior, its historical collections and educational programs.

We rely on over 65 volunteer docents who provide the public tour program at the Missouri Governor's Mansion. Our docents are educators, tour guides, researchers and ambassadors to everyone who visits the Mansion.

"MRTA is excited to partner with Missouri Governor's Mansion to further educate the citizens on Missouri's history and showcase this beautiful and historic building," said Maria Walden, Executive Director.

MRTA is dedicated to promoting and protecting the pensions, programs and benefit of all public school personnel in retirement.

If you are interested in helping share the Missouri Governor's Mansion's history and beauty with others, please call 573-230-7000 or email: tami@missourimansion.com for more information.
